Marso Construction Awarded Good Oil Bedford Park Convenience Store

BEDFORD PARK, IL. – Marso Construction has been awarded the General Contractor on a design build project in Bedford Park, Illinois. The project will include a free standing, 6,500 sq. ft. convenience store that will also allow space for operations of a Gas Station. Operations are already under way and we look forward to seeing the progress and the completed store.

Marso Construction, based in Franklin, Wisconsin, has an extensive background in commercial construction providing general contracting, construction management and development services. Marso Construction, owned and managed by CEO Greg Marso, who also oversees all the activities of The Marso Companies, is a member of Associated Builders and Contractors and in the Better Business Bureau.
